5. Any member or non-member may be suspended and denied privileges of the NOHSA by the appropriate committee of the NOHSA for failure to pay when due any obligation owing to the NOHSA, or to an approved show or for giving a worthless check for entry fees, stall fees, office charges, feed bills incurred at the NOHSA approved event or any fees or charges including bank charges for returned check connected with the exhibition of NOHSA entries; provided, however, that fifteen (15) days before action by written notice of account due and the intention to suspend or withholding privileges of the NOHSA shall be mailed to such member or non-member. Upon suspension, the name of the member or non-member may be published in the NOHSA magazine or other such publication beginning with the next available issue from date of suspension. Any suspension and denial of privileges under this section shall terminate upon full payment of the obligation due the NOHSA or NOHSA approved event's show management. Show management must notify the NOHSA office of any uncollectible accounts due within 90 days of the closing of the show.

COMPETITION REGISTRATION

6. All competing horses must have a Competition Registration per exhibitor to earn points and awards. Competition Registration is an annual registration and expires December 31 of each year.
7. One complimentary Competition Registration is provided with each paid membership. Additional Competition Registrations are $15.00 each.
8. A copy of the horse's registration papers, if registered, must accompany the Competition Registration Application. A horse's breed association registered name will be the only name utilized on the Competition Registration.
9. Non-registered or grade horses are eligible for a Competition Registration by submitting color photographs showing full left and right sides and full front and back views, specifically showing all marks of identification. Photographs must be submitted at time of application.
10. The Competition Registration will be issued in the name of the current owner as listed on the application.
11. Once a non-registered or grade horse's name is issued on its Competition Registration, that name must be used for the entire year.
12. Members within the same family may show all horses with Competition Registrations that are registered to another member of the immediate family. Immediate Family is defined as - spouse, child, step-child, parent, step-parent, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, half-sibling, step-sibling, spouse's parent, spouse's stepparent, sibling's spouse, half-sibling's spouse, step-sibling's spouse, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, great aunt, great uncle, legal ward or legal guardian. Persons whose relationship is legally recognized as a domestic partnership or civil union under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they sought such relationship are considered immediate family.

NOHSA's Disclaimer of Responsibility for Safety of Show

Participants:

13. The NOHSA, all participants, spectators and others, acknowledge that because these rules have been established on the basis of experience and fairness to all who are interested in the betterment of the open horse show community, the NOHSA assumes no liability for any injuries, damage or claims of whatever nature from any Affiliate, Show Committee, participant or spectator or other person arising out of performance conducted under the NOHSA Handbook. Show management is responsible for the condition of the show premises, including arena and exercise areas: the conduct and competence of show employees and other representatives; implementation of show activities; and all other aspects of this show.

As an express condition of the privilege to participate at a NOHSA approved show or event, each owner of a horse, exhibitor, trainer, participant, assumes the risks of participation and release and discharge NOHSA, its officers, directors, representatives and employees from any and all liability, whenever or however arising, as to personal injury or property damage occurring as a result of any participation or attendance in or at an event conducted by the show or on the grounds thereof.

SHOWS RECOGNIZED BY NOHSA

14. Members may earn year end points and qualify for the NOHSA World Championship Show at any Open or 4-H show not governed by a national association. Non-sanctioned classes at a show that is sanctioned by a national equine association will qualify for NOHSA points.
 - a) NOHSA Partner Member Show - An open or 4-H show that is put on by a local club or private entity that is also an NOHSA Partner member in good standing.

COMPETITION RULES

15. Points accumulate on a one horse – one exhibitor combination competing in Open and 4-H shows that hold a current Competition Registration and an NOHSA regular or youth membership. Each show/judge will constitute one set of points on a one horse – one exhibitor combination.
16. Only points earned from January 1 through December 31 of the current year will be utilized to calculate points for year-end awards, to be awarded the following year.
17. Exhibitor Results Reports must be submitted with the horse's name as it appears on its Competition Registration any discrepancies will not be accepted.
18. Prior to July 1st horses under the age of two may only earn points in classes not shown astride (halter, showmanship, in hand trail, etc.).
19. No judge, or member of their immediate family shall enter or exhibit horses in any event at which he/she is officiating, nor may any horse owned by such person, be entered/exhibited.

EXHIBITOR RESULTS REPORT

20. Points will only be recorded when NOHSA receives a properly completed Exhibitor Results Report via the online form found on the website. Requested information will include but is not limited to, show name, show date, Show Manager/Official name, name of hosting organization, and all classes entered. All submissions are subject to verification and members may be required to provide additional information.
21. Submitted Exhibitor Results Reports with incomplete or inaccurate information will be declined.
22. Members should submit an Exhibitor Results Report as soon as possible and no later than 30 days after the date of the show. No Exhibitor Report will be accepted after 30 days from the date of the show or beyond January 31st of the following year.
23. Random audits of Exhibitor Results Reports will be done on a regular basis. Information supplied by the NOHSA member will be verified by contacting the show manager or official listed on the report. Disciplinary proceedings will be initiated if any information is found to be falsified.

POINTS

24. Points shall be compiled on a one horse - one exhibitor combination basis. If multiple contestants exhibit the same horse, each exhibitor must submit a separate Exhibitor Results Report. Horses must have a current Competition Registration and exhibitors must have a current membership for earned points to count toward year-end high point awards. It is acceptable to submit a Competition Registration and membership application with a member's first Exhibitor Results Report as long as it is within 30 days from the date of the show.

- 25. Points shall be awarded based on the total number of horses shown in the class. For example, if 15 horses are exhibited in a class and two are disqualified, points would be based on 15 entries. Up to six (6) placings per class will be recognized by NOHSA. Class points will be awarded as shown in the table below.
- 26. Disqualified and entries that receive a zero (0) score will not receive points for that class.
- 27. At a show, each sex division halter Grand Champion will receive two additional points and Reserve Grand Champion will receive one additional point. No additional points will be awarded for any other form of Grand Champion or High Point award a show may present.

POINT SYSTEM

28. The following point system will be used

NOHSA PARTNER MEMBER SHOW

32. NOHSA Partner Members hold exclusive rights to host NOHSA approved classes and use the term "NOHSA Partner Member Show"

SPORTSMANSHIP

33. Exhibitors, owners, and agents must display good sportsmanship at all times. Good sportsmanship includes, but is not limited to, the conduct of the exhibitor, owner, or agent anywhere on the show grounds, all exhibitors, owner and agents are expected to conduct themselves in appropriate manner at all times with show management, judge(s), NOHSA steward, show participants or spectators.

Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Unsportsmanlike conduct will be defined as, but not limited to, any action of disrespect, misrepresentation, deceit or fraud directed to judges, show management, NOHSA, NOHSA Staff or personnel, NOHSA members or other exhibitors or spectators. Any conduct that involves the use of physical force and/or results in physical harm to another individual(s) will be dealt with severely by the appropriate committee within NOHSA. The suggested minimum penalty for each individual is $500 fine and a one year suspension per incident. Violators will be handled by such committee as deemed acceptable by the NOHSA. NOHSA has the right to publish the name of any member, non-member, or legal entity who has been disciplined by the Association, to include those suspended.

a) Exhibitors, owners or spectators who wish to file a formal complaint to take action against another owner, exhibitor or spectator for a violation of this rule may do so by submitting a letter in writing to the NOHSA office accompanied by a $200 (U.S.) deposit. Said deposit will be refunded if complaint is sustained in the formal hearing process. Judges and show committees may file a complaint without payment of the $200 deposit.

b) Report forms are available at the NOHSA website.

c) Penalties for violation are subject to the appropriate committee.

INHUMANE TREATMENT

34. No person shall treat any horse in a cruel or inhumane manner, including, but not limited to, the prohibited conduct specified in the Handbook. Cruelty to horses included in this prohibition, as it indicates a general course of dealing with horses that is unacceptable for NOHSA membership qualification. For violation of this rule, an NOHSA member may be disciplined, suspended, fined and/or expelled from NOHSA, and a non-member may be denied NOHSA privileges. This prohibition against cruelty may include NOHSA members and/or owners of horses, their agents, representatives and employees, the actions for which a member or owner are also responsible.

a) NOHSA may accept the conviction of an individual or judicial confiscation of a horse under state, federal, provincial or international law, for an offense of cruelty to or inhumane treatment of a horse, as a presumptive violation of this rule. NOHSA may impose appropriate fines or suspensions.

b) Every horse at an NOHSA approved event shall, at all times, be treated humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. Abuse is defined as an action, or failure to act, which a reasonable, prudent person, informed and experienced in the customs, accepted training techniques and exhibition procedures, or veterinary standards would determine to be cruel, abusive, inhumane or detrimental to the horses' health. Individuals will be disciplined if it is determined that there was willful abuse of the horse under any of the following circumstances:

1) The individual physically participates in the abuse of the animal or shows or rides the horse in a condition considered to be abusive.

2) No persons shall exhibit any horse, which appears sullen, dull, lethargic, emaciated, drawn or overly tired.

3) No person on show grounds, including but not limited to, barns, stalls, practice area and show arena, may treat a horse in an inhumane manner, which includes, but is not limited to,

a) Placing an object in a horse's mouth so as to cause undue discomfort or distress;

b) Tying a horse in a manner as to cause undue discomfort or distress in a stall, trailer or when longeing or riding;

c) Use of inhumane training techniques or methods;

d) Use of inhumane equipment, including, but not limited to, saw tooth bits, hock hobbles, tack collars or tack hackamores;

e) Any item or appliance that restricts movement or circulation of the tail;

f) Intentional inhumane treatment, which results in bleeding.

c) Penalties and fines for a violation of the abuse rules will be dealt severely by the appropriate committee within NOHSA.

GRIEVANCE ISSUES AND COMMITTEE

35. A Grievance Committee is established within NOHSA to expedite due process available to all members who may become involved in a rule violation or alleged violation.

a) The Grievance Committee will consist of three members appointed by the President.

b) Any member or nonmember may notify NOHSA of a violation. A filing fee of $200, payable to NOHSA must accompany a written complaint(s). All complaints must be addressed to the Executive Director of the NOHSA. Judges, board members, Executive Committee members, directors, show management and/or show staff are exempt from the filing fee when acting in an official capacity. The written complaint and filing fee should be sent to NOHSA within 15 days of the incident as herein provided. NOHSA may however act on infraction(s) outside the 15 day time line when deemed by NOHSA to serve to protect the integrity of the association, welfare of the horse and safety of the member(s).

c) Upon receipt of the rule violation/infraction, the Executive Director will provide notice to the affected member and research the incident. The Grievance Committee will review all compiled data and determine if the complaint/violation should progress to a hearing. The Grievance Committee will not issue punishments. Should the Grievance Committee recommend progression of the incident to a hearing level, the member will be notified in writing by NOHSA and will have 15 business days from receipt of the notice to respond.

d) The member, at any time during the Grievance process may notify the Executive Director of his/her intent to declare fault. The hearing committee will then review all materials and provide the member with a decision within 15 business days of the member's receipt of their declaration of a fault status, this may include but not be limited to suspension, denial of association privileges, fine(s), loss of points, monies or awards earned at the event where the infraction occurred. The decision of the hearing committee is final.

e) The member declaring fault will be required to acknowledge acceptance of the hearing committees' decision within 48 hours of the rendering. The members failure to accept the decision of the initial hearing committee within the 48 hour period (either orally or by failure to respond), will result in a full hearing committee being convened, the offer of the initial hearing committee withdrawn, and the member will be required to appear in front of the convened hearing committee. The member may be subject to incurring all expenses relative to a conveyed hearing, which may include but not be limited to attorney's fees, court reporter cost.

f) Any member may appeal the decision of the hearing committee. The request for appeal must be submitted in writing within 15 business days, and be accompanied by a $500 fee. The appeals committee will be the board of the NOHSA.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

36. Any member or non-member may be disciplined, fined, subject to probation, suspended or expelled from the Association and denied any or all privileges of the NOHSA whenever it shall have been established by such evidence of existence of the fact asserted that such member or non-member has violated any pertinent rule of the NOHSA. Anyone who attempts to influence investigation or hearing may be subject to disciplinary action. Filing of a malicious or frivolous grievance may result in disciplinary action.

a) No person shall refuse to answer and/or provide NOHSA, its' officers, committees or agents any inquiry, in form requested, concerning a horse, exhibitor, owner, and/or agent which has been shown with NOHSA. A member or non-member shall not conspire with another person to intentionally violate NOHSA rules, or to knowingly contribute or cooperate with another person or persons, either by affirmative action or inaction, to violate NOHSA rules.

b) In regards to any violation of show and contest rule, as a part of its disciplinary action, the Disciplinary Hearing Committee may revoke participation privileges in all NOHSA -approved events for a determined or indefinite period. In addition, it may assess a fine. Suspended persons MAY BE required to reimburse the NOHSA for any/all cost, including reasonable attorney fees associated with their Disciplinary Hearing and in addition to any fines and/or penalties imposed.

5) Any awards and/or prizes and/or purses won in a class where a violation occurred, will be forfeited in any case. In the event that an exhibitor is determined to be ineligible for a class and has won prize money that is to be forfeited, said prize money shall be returned to NOHSA for proper redistribution. Sanctions will be ongoing until prize money and awards are returned.

e) Whenever anyone shall be accused of any violation, he/she shall be given not less than fifteen (15) days notice of a time and place for hearing such accusations by an appropriate committee. He/she shall have the opportunity, in person, or by counsel, to be heard and to present evidence in his/her own behalf and to hear and refute evidence offered against him/her.

Such hearing committee and Board of Directors will be allowed to meet via electronic devices and or conference calls if complainant or respondent does not register protest or plan to attend the hearing.

f) The decisions of such hearing committee shall be final and binding on all parties subject only to an appeal of complainant or respondent to the Board of Directors. Said appeal must be registered in writing, stating the grounds for the appeal, and filed at the NOHSA office within 15 days after original hearing date and must include $500 appeal fee. The appeal shall be registered and only the evidence and testimony presented at the Disciplinary Hearing of the Appellant will be considered at the Appellant Appeal Review. Should the Hearing Committee's determination be sustained, the appeal fee will be forfeited and the Appellant shall reimburse the NOHSA for all costs of the Appellant Hearing including reasonable attorney fees less the appeal fee previously submitted.

g) Pending final or appeal hearing by the Appeals Committee, Board of Directors or such other appropriate committee, parties will be given written notice of action to:

1) Temporarily suspend such horse, member or non-member, the effect of which shall be to deny him/her further participation and privileges in the NOHSA and NOHSA -approved events until the Appeals Committee, Board of Directors or other such appropriate committee can hear the matter and take the appropriate disciplinary action.

j) ATTORNEY FEES: A member or non-member who seeks judicial review of previous NOHSA determinations or who brings any judicial action against NOHSA does hereby accept the condition that by joining, participating in NOHSA approved events, does hereby agree, if unsuccessful in the attempt prosecute NOHSA or overturn said determinations, actions, rules or regulations, to reimburse NOHSA for its reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other expenses in defense of such suit.

k) LITIGATION AGREEMENT: Every member, by joining the Association, or non-member, filing applications of other documents with NOHSA, or participating in NOHSA approved events does thereby agree:

1) If unsuccessful in any judicial action brought against NOHSA will reimburse NOHSA for its reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other expenses in defense of such suit.

2) No action will commence, whether in law or equity, against NOHSA in any courts other than those Federal and State courts located in Lake County, Illinois.

37. At such time as any person has been suspended, expelled or denied NOHSA privileges, in addition to other provisions of this handbook or policy of the NOHSA, the following restrictions shall apply:

a) That person shall not participate, and shall be ineligible to participate during the suspension/expulsion period, in any NOHSA event, nor shall such person be eligible to hold approved judge's credentials or any other NOHSA accreditation.

b) No horse which is recorded in the name of such person (including ownership jointly or ownership as part of a partnership or corporation) is eligible to participate in any event approved by the NOHSA, NOHSA National Award Programs, or event and/or awards program sponsored by an NOHSA Affiliate Association.

GENERAL NOTICE PROCEDURE

38. Each owner, trainer or agent thereof, participating in a NOHSA - approved event, is charged with the responsibility of knowing the rules and guidelines of the NOHSA as set forth in the NOHSA handbook and/or other such publication(s), or relevant correspondence, and is conclusively presumed to know such rules and guidelines by his/her participation in the event.

39. Every notice required by these rules and regulations may be served by delivery a copy of the notice to the person to be served, or his attorney, either in person or by certified mail, postage prepaid, or other receipted delivery service to his last known address as it appears on the NOHSA records. Upon, mailing, such notice shall be deemed received by such person when it is deposited in the United States mail or delivery service receptacle.

40. Designation as an NOHSA -approved and/or recommended judge is a privilege, not a right, bestowed it, to individuals whose equine expertise and personal character merit the honor. An individual's conduct as a member, exhibitor and judge, and his/her ability must be exemplary: and is subject to continual committee review. Such designation is revocable by the Disciplinary Hearing Committee or other such committee as deemed appropriate with the notice and formal hearing; subject only to appeal to the Board of Directors. It is a serious matter and a job that should be conducted with the greatest sense of dignity and fair play possible, laying aside all personality likes and dislikes and applying NOHSA standards while affording each exhibitor and entry the fairest and most unbiased judgment possible.

1.) Judges must maintain a current membership with NOHSA.

b) Minimum age of an NOHSA Judge is 25.

41. Judges shall not communicate through any means with owners, trainers, exhibitors or agents in the absence of show management or ring stewards during the show.

42. An evaluation of a judge's performance may be submitted in writing by any member in an attempt to find those judges who are making positive applications of the objectives of the NOHSA. Members are encouraged to do this. A negative evaluation of a judge's performance by any NOHSA member will be forwarded to the NOHSA.
